the services at
Liverpool Women's Hospital

About Liverpool Women's Hospital Charity

As a specialist Foundation Trust, Liverpool Women's is dedicated to the health of women and families. Each year Liverpool Women's delivers over 8,000 babies cares for 1,000 poorly babies on its neonatal unit and undertakes around 10,000 gynaecological procedures; with 50,000 patients crossing its door each year.

Putting patients first is at the heart of everything we do. As a registered charity it is our job to raise funds on behalf of the Trust to enhance overall patient experience that goes far beyond that provided by the NHS, which can make a big difference to our patients and their families.

Liverpool Women's has had a presence in Liverpool since 1796, it has moved location several times and evolved into the world leading specialist services that we know and love today.

From the very beginning the hospital has had a strong charitable presence and it is due to supporters like you that we are now extremely fortunate to have the largest specialist hospital in the UK right on our doorstep.

Supporters Stories

Here is Sean "shaving it all off" to raise money for the Honeysuckle Team at Liverpool Women's!! Sean and Kylie are undertaking ongoing fundraising in memory of their baby Harper.

"Our daughter Harper was born extremely premature at 24+2 weeks at Liverpool Women's Hospital on Wednesday 25th November 2015. She was taken to NICU and that's where she spent her short life. After 27 days fighting our gorgeous girl grew her wings on the Tuesday 22nd December 2015. After her death we met the Honeysuckle Bereavement Team and ever since have had continuing support from them, that's why we want to do this fundraiser to give something back to the Honeysuckle Team."

Hope has several respiratory related illness' which are likely to be as a result of her pre-birth issues.

"My name is Hope and I am 9 years old my family tell me all the time that I am special and that I am a miracle. I want to raise lots of pennies for the Fetal Medicine Unit at the Liverpool Women's Hospital because when I was very very poorly in my mummy's tummy they helped to make me better. Last year I was very excited because I was getting a new baby brother we went to the hospital to see his scan and I was very happy but he was very poorly like me. My brother needed lots of help to make him better and so he was looked after by the same doctor as me in the fetal unit.

My baby brother Teddy was very special, he was born on 6th September but was still very very sick, he became a beautiful angel and went to heaven. I miss my brother very very very much and I don't like it when my mummy and daddy are sad but I know that Teddy is having the best time in the sky and that he looks after me from up in heaven.

I really wanted to do something like my mummy and daddy to remember my brother and to raise some money for the special unit that looked after me and my brother and lots of other new babies".

Steff and Craig raised a fantastic £7598.32 in memory of their daughter, here is why.

"We raised money for The Newborn Appeal in Memory of Sophia Lily as we are so thankful that we got to spend 5 days with our beautiful daughter, and this wouldn't of been possible without the amazing people who work within the Liverpool Women's Hospital Neonatal Unit. They provided 24hr special care to give our baby every chance of survival and also provided both my fiancé Craig and myself with 100 % support, including allowing us to stay on the unit so we could be close to her during her final hours. We hope this money can assist other babies in the hospital and give them a chance of having a long and happy life."
